

John Windham

Camp Director

John Windham begins his third year as director of the Wildcat Basketball Camp.

Before coming to Culver-Stockton, Coach Windham served as head coach at Virginia Episcopal School, a college prep school in Lynchburg, Va., compiling a 96-57 career record. His teams were ranked in the top 10 in the Virginia Independent Conference every season, and he was named conference coach of the year after the 2006-07 season.

Coach Windham also had a successful run at Rowland Hall—St. Mark's School in Salt Lake City, Utah. In five years, his program went from a last place team to a region championship and state semifinal appearance. His team was state-ranked in each of his last three years. He was voted Utah Coach of the Year after the 1999-2000 and the 2001-02 seasons.

In addition, Windham also has experience at the pro level where he was a head coach in Sweden. In his first year at Linköping, Sweden, Windham coached them to the southern division national championship and compiled a .700 winning percentage.

A native of Sterling, Ill., and a graduate of Western Illinois University, Coach Windham brings many years of game experience. He has worked many basketball camps throughout the United States and Europe.

Brendan McShea

Associate Camp Director

Brendan McShea enters his third year as an assistant coach in the men's basketball program. Brendan also is the head coach of the Wildcat junior varsity program.

Brendan began his coaching career as an assistant at Virginia Episcopal School located in Lynchburg, Va. As a member of Coach Windham's staff, Brendan was in charge of post player development, scouting, transportation and game management. In his two years at VES, he oversaw a top 10 program that won their first round games in the state tournament, the first in school history.

Brendan is a 2006 graduate of the College of William and Mary where he was the head manager for the NCAA Division I program. During his three years there, William and Mary's basketball program improved their overall record each year.

Originally from Berryville, Va., Brendan now resides in Canton, Missouri.
